

Previous Lecture

---

- Basics of a report
- Report characteristics
- Expectation and purpose
- Significance of a report
- Relevance, attributes and features of a report
- Comparison of a report and essay

Audience

---

Purpose

---

Technical Report Writing

---

- Written account of events related to a scientific inquiry
- An exercise of effectively communicating a technical information
- Interpretation of graphs, tables and figures using language
- Foundation: organization of information

Universal Characteristics

---

1 Active Voice

2 Third Person

3 No Personal Pronouns for Objectivity

4 One Inch Margin on all Sides

5 Proper Citation

6 Referencing Credible Authors

Report Structure: Title Page

---

Report Structure: Abstract

Report Structure: Table of Contents

---

Report Structure: Introduction

Report Structure: Design and Procedure

---

- ✓ Theoretical Description of Design
- ✓ Testing of Proposed Design
- ✓ No Specific Measurements
- ✓ Brief and Getting to the Point

Report Structure: Results and Discussions

---

- Textual explanation accompanied with:

Figures

Tables

Diagrams

Report Structure: Conclusion

---

- Quantitatively Summing Up all the Results with Brevity
- No Abbreviations
- Problems
- Objectives
- Procedures
- Results

Report Structure: Works Cited and Appendix

Reference List

- UniLearning, Report Writing, http://unilearning.uow.edu.au/report/rep\_business.html, accessed July 18, 2013
- How to Write a Business Report to an Executive, smallbusiness.chron.com, accessed July 18, 2013, <http://smallbusiness.chron.com/write-business-report-executive-17048.html>
- How to write effective business report, slideshare, <http://www.slideshare.net/contentwritings/how-to-write-effective-business-reports-business-report-writing-service>, accessed July 18, 2013

Report Structure: Nature of Readers

---

✓
Technical Readers

- Figures

✓
Managerial Readers

- Executive Summary

✓
General Readers

- Comprehensible Language

Report Structure: Language

---

Clarity

- active verbs

Brevity

- declarative and simple sentence

Objectivity

- no use of 'I' or 'we'

Deductive vs. Inductive Report

Deductive Report

Routine messages

Neutral information

Open and clear presentation of information

Inductive Report

Discussion before conclusion

Use of factual information to draw conclusion

Used in the case of informed readers

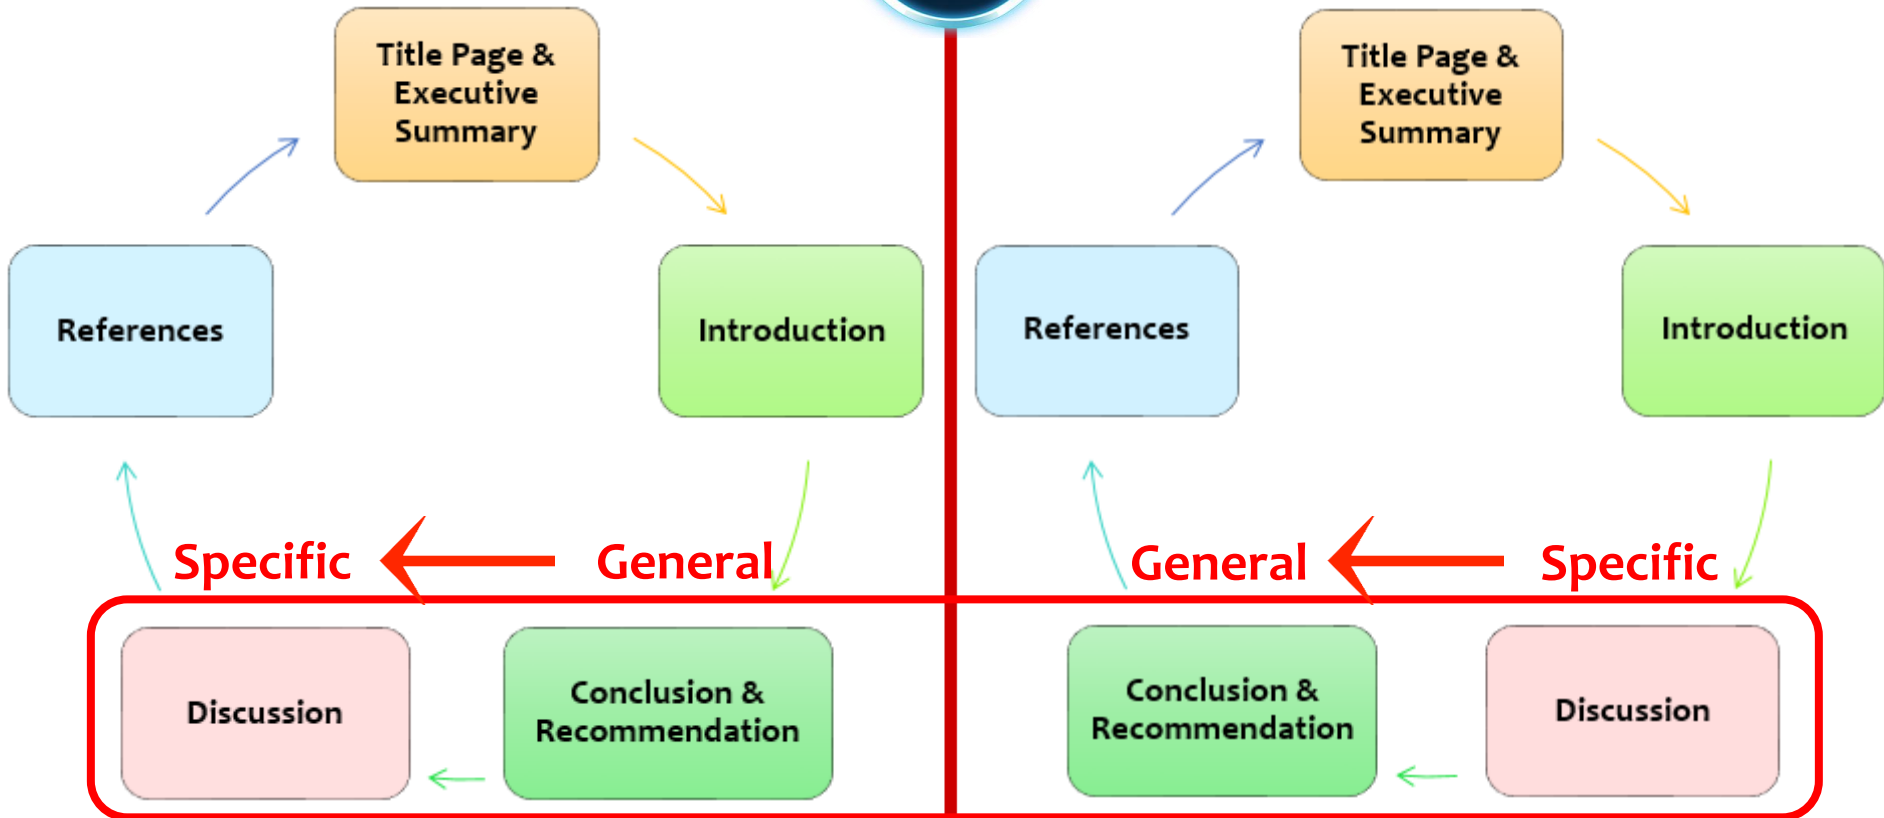

With the expected resistance

Deductive vs. Inductive Report

Deductive Report

Inductive Report

Conclusions

---

- Technical communication
- Nature of the audience
- Structure of a report
- Deductive vs. Inductive report